

Be Idle-Free!

Children breathe faster than adults and inhale more air per pound of body weight. This makes them very vulnerable to air pollution.

If you drive your children to and from school, please protect them from air pollution by turning off your car's engine while you are parked.

Protect our air – kids breathe here!

idle-free
ambassador